

Conflict & Hunger: A Vicious Cycle

Social
institutions
weaken

Social
tensions deepen

Conflict

People flee from their homes, losing their livelihoods.

Agricultural production and distribution slows.

Less food
available
and accessible

Hunger

People living in countries with long-term conflicts are twice as likely to be hungry than people in peaceful countries.

Displacement
of families

